Responsibilities and Liabilities

TOWANDA Women is responsible for providing and arranging the services outlined in the brochure. We are responsible for conscientious travel preparation and to review our contractors and accommodations on a continuous basis.

The tour participant takes full responsibility for the operation of the hired motorcycle.

TOWANDA Women shall not be held responsible for and shall accept no liability in respect of any claims, losses, damages, costs or expenses arising out of:

- A) personal injury, sickness, disease, accident or death, however caused, including without limitation, while engaged on, or by reason of, any TOWANDA tour whether due to ownership, maintenance, use, operation or control of any motorcycle, automobile, vehicle, hotel, common carrier or any other conveyance used in the tour;
- B) loss or damage to or delay of baggage or other property;
- C) failure, delay or other irregularity, acts or omissions and loss resulting therefrom occurring during a TOWANDA tour due to actions of hoteliers, carriers and other independent suppliers, or due to government action, weather, mechanical breakdown, equipment failure, labor disputes, sickness or any other causes beyond TOWANDA Women's direct control.

Notwithstanding the above, should TOWANDA Women be held liable for any matter whatever, the liability of TOWANDA women shall be limited to TOWANDA Women's share of the tour package cost excluding disbursement incurred on behalf of the tour participant.

As a rider you are solely responsible for your choice of riding style and adhering to the countries' traffic laws.

I agree to these conditions with my signature. I have read and understood the "Terms and Conditions" outlined in the catalogue. I state that I am carrying comprehensive travel insurance for this tour.
